

Orders are now being taken for Cherished Recipes, a 440-recipe cookbook comprised of family favorite dishes and many other unique features. They are available at the museum's coach house office at 39 East Elm Street or by mail. You have four ways to order: 1) call 630-529-6228; 2) send an e-mail to rosellehistory@sbcglobal.net; 3) visit the coach house; or 4) print out the form below and mail it to the coach house office with your check enclosed.

The attractive three-ring binder, designed to enhance anyone's cookbook library, features nine categories of recipes, photographs of the Richter House rooms, and artifacts in the museum's collection. Vignettes from recipe contributors, personal stories and household hints from the committee members, as well as poignant quotes from the Great Depression are scattered throughout the book. In addition, stories about honey and vinegar, eggs, meringue, inventions, and "Someone You Should Know" provide interesting reading. The cookbooks are also available at the Roselle Village Hall and some businesses in Roselle. Order your cookbook today!
